DOCUMENT RESUME

ED 356 979 SO 022 695

TITLE	Resource Materials on the Middle East.
INSTITUTION	Catholic Near East Welfare Association, New York, NY.
PUB DATE	91
NOTE	19p.
PUB TYPE	Reference Materials - Bibliographies (131)
EDRS PRICE	MF01/PC01 Plus Postage.
DESCRIPTORS	Ancient History; Annotated Bibliographies; *Area Studies; Elementary Secondary Education; Foreign Countries; International Relations; Religion Studies; *Religious Cultural Groups; Religious Differences; Social Studies; World History
IDENTIFIERS	*Middle East

ABSTRACT

This annotated bibliography is intended for all who want to learn more about the Middle East--the land, the people, and the communities of ancient and modern times. The document is specifically designed to enrich religion and social studies programs in elementary and middle schools. The types of resources listed are: resource directories, periodicals, videocassettes, books, children's books, and educational materials. A list of organizations concerning the Middle East also is included. (DB)

****
* Reproductions supplied by EDRS are the best that can be made *
* from the original document. *
****

ED356979

RESOURCE MATERIALS

ON THE

MIDDLE EAST

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Office of Educational Research and Improvement
EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES INFORMATION CENTER (ERIC)

☒ This document has been reproduced as received from the person or organization originating it.

☐ Minor changes have been made to improve reproduction quality.

• Points of view or opinions stated in this document do not necessarily represent official OERI position or policy.

"PERMISSION TO REPRODUCE THIS MATERIAL HAS BEEN GRANTED BY

AUSTIN LAW CARROLL

TO THE EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES INFORMATION CENTER (ERIC)."

Catholic Near East Welfare Association
a papal agency for humanitarian and pastoral support
1011 First Avenue, New York, New York 10022-4195 212/826-1480

SO 022 695

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

Introduction

This list of resources is intended for all who want to learn more about the Middle East—the land, the people and the communities of ancient and modern times. Though intended as an introduction, many of these suggestions will enrich religion and social studies programs in elementary and secondary schools. For all who are involved in peacemaking, this bibliography may lead to a greater appreciation of diversity.

The history and present reality of religion profoundly affect the lives of people everywhere, but perhaps more visibly in the Holy Land, where Judaism, Christianity and Islam developed. The presence of Eastern Christian churches in the Middle East for two thousand years is valued by all who treasure the roots of their faith. Involvement with these churches has been an important aspect of the work of Catholic Near East Welfare Association for over sixty-five years. While often omitted in bibliographies on the Middle East, books, periodicals and videocassettes relating to the churches of the Middle East are included here.

Individuals and organizations interested in additional information about the Middle East can avail themselves of Middle East studies programs in neighboring universities. Many extend their educational programs through outreach or community resource centers that provide lectures, symposia, workshops and materials for teachers, students, scholars and the general public. Information regarding locations of university outreach centers is available from the Middle East Studies Association.

A note on listings

When available, addresses, phone numbers and costs are included. Three organizations in particular supply many of the listed items and facilitate ordering. The symbols ✻, ‡ and § are used to indicate these organizations. Addresses of these and other organizations are appended to this listing.

Resource Directories

Arab American Almanac, 3rd ed., Joseph R. Haiek, editor, 1984.
Contains listings of Arab-American organizations, religious institutions, a historical and geographical summary of each country, Arab contributions and a chapter on the Arabic Literary Renaissance. The News Circle Publishing Co., 6730 San Fernando Rd., P.O. Box 3684, Glendale, CA 91201-0684; (818) 545-0333. $9.95 plus $2.50 shipping & handling.

A Curriculum Resource Guide on the Middle East, edited by Constance Newnam and Ralph A. Valente. New York: Middle East Studies Program, Fordham University, 1990. This guide contains lesson plans, resources (including other Middle East outreach programs in universities) and a bibliography. Complimentary copies are available from Fordham: Ralph Valente, Middle East Studies Program, Fordham University, Bronx, NY 10458-5153.

Middle East: A Directory of Resources, compiled and edited by Thomas P. Fenton and Mary J. Heffron. Maryknoll, NY: Orbis Books, 1988. A compilation of organizations, books, periodicals, audiovisuals, pamphlets and articles. 160 pages. AMEU ‡. $7.95.

Middle Eastern Materials for Teachers, Students & non-Specialists, edited by Catherine E. Jones, 1988. Annotated bibliography of printed materials, including reference works, folktales, literature, religion, history, politics and economics. Evaluation of texts, materials for the primary grades. Middle East Studies Association of North America, 1232 N. Cherry Ave., University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ 85721; (602) 621-5850. $10 plus $1.70 postage and handling.

Resource Guide to Materials on the Arab World, by Audrey Shabbas, 1987. A guide to 16mm films, videos, filmstrips, slide programs and other teacher materials. The Association of Arab-American University Graduates, 556 Trapelo Rd., Belmont, MA 02178; (617) 484-5483.

Aramco World is a bi-monthly, color-illustrated publication distributed without charge to readers with an interest in the history, culture, geography and economy of the Middle East. Aramco World, Box 3725, Escondido, CA 92025-0925.

Catholic Near East, published quarterly by Catholic Near East Welfare Association, contains articles about the people and the churches in the Middle East, Ethiopia, Afghanistan, Albania, Bulgaria, Greece, India, the Soviet Union and wherever Eastern Christians are found. Catholic Near East Welfare Association, 1011 First Ave., New York, NY 10022-4195. $10.00/year.

Children Worldwide is a review of the International Catholic Child Bureau containing matters pertaining to children from all parts of the world regardless of their creed. Activities of other international agencies with similar concerns are covered. International Catholic Child Bureau, 323 East 47th St., New York, NY 10017; (212) 355-3992. 3 issues/year, $17.00.

Face to Face, an Inter-religious Bulletin, contains articles on various aspects of the Jewish-Christian dialogue. Each issue deals with one facet of this dialogue in depth on topics of mutual concern. ADL §, 3 issues/year, $12.00.

The Link contains feature articles on timely subjects relating to the Middle East. Annotations of books and audiovisuals offered by Americans for Middle East Understanding reveal considerable discounts. AMEU ‡, 6 issues/year, $25.00.

Middle East Insight aims to enlighten public opinion on the political, social, economic and historical issues of the Middle East and to promote understanding between the American and the Middle Eastern people. Middle East Insight, 2029 Q St., NW, Washington, DC 20009. 6 issues/year, $52.00.

The Washington Report on Middle East Affairs states that it "supports Middle East solutions which it judges to be consistent with the charter of the United Nations and traditional American support for human rights, self-determination, and fair play." American Educational Trust and Washington Report, P.O. Box 53062, Washington, DC 20009; 1-800-368-5788, 12 issues/year, $15.00.

Videocassettes

"Arab and Jew: Wounded Spirits in a Promised Land" (1989) is a documentary based on David Shipler's Pulitzer Prize-winning book about the complex relations between Arabs and Jews in Israel. The recollections, opinions and emotions of individuals shed light on how Arabs and Jews see one another. PBS Video, 1320 Braddock Place, Alexandria, VA 22314-1698; 1-800-424-7963. VHS two 60-minute cassettes, $90.00.

"Built of Living Stones" (1989) is a video documentary about Palestinian Christians living in Israel and the Occupied Territories. It begins with a historical overview of the Holy Land from the time of Christ through the Diaspora and the spread of Islam. Among the "living stones" presented is Father Elias Chacour, who operates a college preparatory school attended by Jews, Christians and Muslims. VHS 58 minutes, AMEU ‡, $29.95.

"Children of Fire" is a documentary about life under curfew in the town of Nablus on the West Bank. In the course of a month, producer Mai Masri and film crew present a portrait of life during the Palestinian uprising as seen from the eyes of families and children. VHS 50 minutes, AMEU ‡, $49.50.

"Family Ties" (1986) centers around the mother of a large extended family of Jordanians living in Amman. Women who have different views of the traditional role of wives and mothers include a Tunisian woman who longs for her own apartment and a Jordanian woman who is a commercial pilot flying jets. Landmark Films, Inc., 3450 Slade Run Drive, Falls Church, VA 22042; (703) 241-2030. VHS 50 minutes, $395.00.

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

"The Forgotten Faithful," (1988) produced by the Anglican Diocese of Jerusalem, introduces the Palestinian Christian communities of the Holy Land, which are some of the oldest Christian communities in the world. VHS 30 minutes, AMEU ‡, $25.95.

"Introduction to the Arab World" (1988) explores the cultural traditions, the diversity and current issues of the vast area comprising the Arab world. Designed for viewing in 15-minute segments, the video explains the distinctions between Arab and Muslim, the development of Islam and its contributions to civilization, the beliefs and practices of Muslims, Arab society today, balancing tradition and change, concludes the final segment. A guidebook with reproducible pages, a bibliography and a listing of university outreach programs accompanies this 1989 production. AMIDEAST, 1100 17th St. NW, Washington, DC 20036; (202) 785-0022. VHS 48 minutes, $49.95.

"Jordan's Stormy Banks: Toward Understanding the Middle East" (1991) is an account of the most recent events in the Middle East. A leader's guide is included. Together both the video and guide serve as a basic introduction to the history of the Palestinian-Israeli conflict. VHS 20 minutes, AMEU ‡, $14.95.

"Palestinian Portraits" (1987) presents Palestinians from all walks of life, living in the United States, who express a deep longing and concern for the place and culture left behind. First Run/Icarus Films, 153 Waverly Place, Sixth Floor, New York, NY 10014; (212) 727-1711. VHS 22 minutes, sale-$230.00, rental-$45.00.

Videocassettes (continued)

"A Perspective on Israel with Barbara Tuchman" (1984) is a documentary chronicling Israel's struggle for survival in the Middle East. Some of Israel's past leaders are included: Golda Meir, David Ben-Gurion and Abba Eban. ADL $, VHS 29 minutes, $29.95 plus $5 postage and handling.

"Moyers/The Arab World," (1991) a five-part series with noted scholars, writers and others who attempt to clarify myths, examine the historical forces that shaped the modern Arab world, consider its artistic and literary achievements and explore the roots of the conflict that divides Arabs, Jews, and the West. Videocassette titles include: 1. "The Arabs: Who They Are, Who They Are Not," 2. "The Historic Memory," 3. "The Image of God," 4. "The Bonds of Pride," 5. "The Roots of Rage: Arabs View the West." 1-800-336-1917. VHS 28 minutes, $19.95 each plus $3.50 shipping/5-part series $79.95 plus $7.50.

"Reflections of Glory: Origins of Byzantine Art," the first of a two-part video, presents explanations of the terminology, concepts and theology of Byzantine icons. Religious Education Office, Byzantine Eparchy of Parma, 1900 Carlton Rd., Parma, OH 44134. VHS 20 minutes, $20.00.

"Sandstorm in the Gulf: Digging Out," (1991) a view of the allied high-tech military victory over Iraq, examines issues of regional security of the Middle East, the political, social and economic costs to America of the war, ending the Arab-Palestinian-Israeli conflict, and paths to economic development. The Video Project, 5332 College Ave., Suite 101, Oakland, CA 94618; (415) 655-9050. VHS 29 minutes, $25.00 plus $4.95 shipping.

"The Shadow of the West" focuses on the plight of the Palestinians, seen as enduring residue of the modern encounter between Arabs and the West. Edward Said traces the course of European involvement with the Near East via the Crusades to Napoleon's campaign in Egypt and the French and English entrepreneurs, adventurers and empire builders who followed. Landmark Films, Inc., 3450 Slade Run Drive, Falls Church, VA 22042; (703) 241-2030. VHS 50 minutes, $395.00.

Blood Brothers, by Elias Chacour. Grand Rapids, MI: Chosen Books, 1984. The story of a Melkite Catholic priest who recalls how his Palestinian family was driven out of their village, his vocation as a priest and subsequent events in his life with other Palestinians in Israel since 1948. 222 pp. AMEU ‡, $4.95.

The Children of Abraham: Judaism/Christianity/Islam, by F. E. Peters. Princeton, NJ: Princeton University Press, 1982. The author's intent is to underline both the parallels and the differences of the three faiths while tracing the origins and history of each. 200 pp.

Christian-Muslim Relations, by R. Marston Speight. Hartford, CT: The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A, 1984. This paperback contains chapters on the origin and development of Islam, the Muslim expression of religion, its theological perspectives and practical suggestions toward improving relations on the local level. 96 pp.

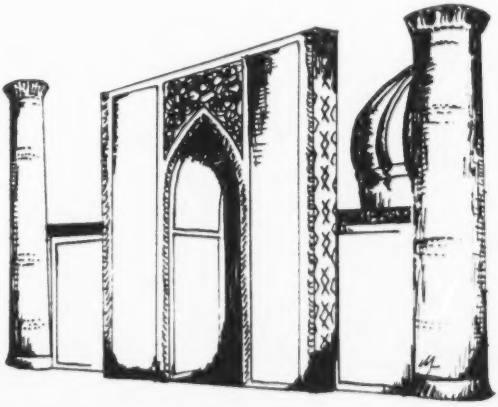
The Eagle and the Lion, by James A. Bill. New Haven, CT: Yale University Press, 1988. A comprehensive analysis, by a leading authority on Iran, of flawed U.S. policy toward Iran from the 1940's to the Iran-Contra scandal and the naval buildup in the Persian Gulf. 520 pp. AMEU ‡, $16.75.

The Eastern Catholic Churches: A Brief Explanation, Parma, OH: the Byzantine Catholic Eparchy of Parma, 1991. With the aid of black-and-white photos, aspects of Eastern churches are presented. Icons, buildings, sanctuary, liturgy and sacraments are among the topics explained. 15 pp. Byzantine Catholic Eparchy of Parma, 1900 Carlton Rd., Parma, OH 44134-3129.

The Eastern Christian Churches: A Brief Survey, (Revised 3rd edition) by Ronald G. Roberson, CSP. Rome: Pont. Institutum Studiorum Orientalium, 1990. Entries summarize the history of the Oriental Orthodox, the Orthodox, the Eastern Catholic churches and the Assyrian Church of the East. Each church is located; overseas and North American leaders are identified. 41 pp. Pont. Institutum Studiorum Orientalium, Piazza Santa Maria Maggiore, 7, 00185 Roma, Italia.

Facts and Fables: The Arab-Israeli Conflict, by Clifford A. Wright. New York: Kegan Paul International, 1989. Each chapter presents a commonly held belief and proceeds to explore the argument and evidence. 228 pp. AMEU ‡. $12.50.

God Is One: The Way of Islam, by R. Marston Speight. New York: Friendship Press, 1989. This book presents a profile of Muslims, describing what they believe and how faith unites them and shapes every aspect of their lives. The author spent many years in northern Africa and presently serves as director of the Office on Christian-Muslim Relations of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA. 139 pp. AMEU ‡, $6.50.

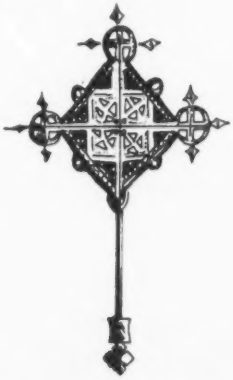


The Gospels and Rabbinic Judaism, by Michael Hilton with Gordian Marshall, OP. Hoboken, NJ: KTAV Publishing House, Inc. & New York: Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, 1988. With the aim of making primary sources available, this book brings together texts from early rabbinic writings and the Gospels. The authors suggest that mutual Christian and Jewish study groups use the book. It can also serve as a reference tool. 169 pp. ADL §, $9.95.

A Guide to Christian Churches in the Middle East, by Norman A. Horner. Elkart, IN: Mission Focus, 1989. This is a concise resource describing the history, practices and contemporary situations of Christian churches. It contains some pictures and maps and an appendix of tables demonstrating the population of each group. 120 pp. AMEU ‡, $4.75.

The Holocaust: A History of the Jews of Europe during the Second World War, by Martin Gilbert. New York: Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1985. With extensively documented detail of anti-Semitism and the series of events from 1933 to 1945, this book describes death camps and the killing of civilians, both Jews and non-Jews, in occupied countries. 820 pp. ADL §, $12.95.

Islam: The Straight Path, by John L. Esposito. New York: Oxford University Press, 1991. The author traces the emergence and development of Islam and its impact on world history and politics. Esposito examines movements and modern interpretations of the faith and surveys topics including women and Islamization. 233 pp. AMEU ‡, $15.25.



Israel's Fateful Hour, by Yehoshofat Harkabi. New York: Harper & Row, 1986. First published as a plea to Israelis, the book probes the origins of the Israeli occupation of the West Bank and Gaza, the urgent need for Israeli negotiation with the PLO, and a need to repudiate the Revisionist Zionism of Jabotinsky and Begin. 256 pp. American Educational Trust, P.O. Box 53062, Washington, DC 20009, $17.95.

Israel For Christians: Understanding Modern Israel, by A. James Rudin. Philadelphia: Fortress Press, 1983. Intended for non-Jewish readers, this book describes the origins of Zionism, the creation of the Jewish State, and the major political and religious issues surrounding the Middle East conflict. 149 pp. The American Jewish Committee, 165 East 56th St., New York, NY 10022-2746; (212) 751-4000. $7.95.

Judaism: A Primer, by Lawrence H. Schiffman. New York: Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, 1986. Concise explanations cover topics such as prayer, the Sabbath, various movements and historical developments. A brief glossary and bibliography are included. 42 pp. ADL §, $4.95.

Justice and Only Justice: A Palestinian Theology of Liberation, by Naim Stifan Ateek. Maryknoll, NY: Orbis Books, 1989. The author, who has lived most of his life in Israel/Palestine, reflects on the conflict biblically and theologically to reach out to Palestinians, both Muslim and Christian, to Jewish leadership everywhere, the wider Christian community and people of good faith throughout the world. A bibliography and Scripture index are included. AMEU ‡, $7.95.

Kfar Sama: A Village in Lebanon, by Mansour Labaky. San Francisco: Ignatius Press, 1984. (Second edition co-published by Editions Al-Karmah, Lebanon and Tequi, Paris—under the title Kfar Sama, Village du Liban: Pourquoi la Guerre?) A poetic recounting by Lebanese villagers as violence continues to disrupt daily life. Fond memories of a beautiful land, of holy days, religious ceremonies and customs.

Let Us Be Free: A Narrative Before and During the Intifada, by Patrick White. Clifton, NJ: The Kingston Press, 1989. Through a series of vignettes, Christian Brother Patrick White relates the experiences of Christian and Muslim Palestinian students at Bethlehem University during a three-year span. 134 pp. AMEU ‡, $8.00.

The Middle East and South Asia, 1990, by Malcolm B. Russell, Ph.D. Washington, DC: Stryker-Post Publications, 1990. This is one paperback in the "World Today Series" revised and published each August. It provides historical background and concise summaries of 24 countries and the Palestinians. Maps and photos are included. 206 pp. AMEU ‡, $6.95.

The Papacy and the Middle East: The Role of the Holy See in the Arab-Israeli Conflict, 1962-1984, by George E. Irani. Notre Dame, IN: University of Notre Dame Press, 1986. The author portrays the role of the Holy See as a trans-national actor or a nation-state whose power and influence allow it to mediate between warring entities, to provide humanitarian relief and to request assistance from outside powers to stop bloodshed. 218 pp. AMEU ‡, $7.50.

The Roads to Nowhere: A Child of Lebanon, by Father Mansour Labaky. Petersham, MA: St. Bede's Publications, 1986. The story of Naseem, whose happy life in the mountains is disrupted by war, is aided by a tenderness that carries him back to a life of love and forgiveness. The French edition won an award from the French Academy and a motion picture based on the book was filmed in Europe. 109 pp.

Samed: Journal of a West Bank Palestinian, by Raja Shehadeh. New York: Adama Books, 1984. A selection of stories and journal entries written during 1980 by a Palestinian who chose to remain "under occupation" rather than go into exile. 143 pp.

Shabbat: An Egyptian, by Richard Critchfield. Syracuse, NY: Syracuse University Press, 1978. Living in a village near the site of ancient Thebes and Tutankhamon, this young Egyptian "fellah" and his neighbors are affected by technological changes while retaining many ancient customs. The daily life and struggles of the villagers are vividly depicted by the author, who lived with his subjects for two years. 233 pp. American Educational Trust, P.O. Box 53062, Washington, DC 20009. $8.50.

Tales of Christian Unity: The Adventures of an Ecumenical Pilgrim, by Thomas Ryan. Ramsey, NJ: Paulist Press, 1983. A year's journey, taken in preparation for his work with the Canadian Centre for Ecumenism, reveals to Father Ryan the richness of the Christian traditions. While describing people, places and events in his journey throughout the Middle East, the author chronicles some unique experiences, including his visit to Mount Athos. 281 pp. Paulist Press, 545 Island Rd., Ramsey, NJ 07446. $9.95.

Toward a Jewish Theology of Liberation, by Marc H. Ellis. Maryknoll, NY: Orbis Books, second edition, 1989. The author presents disparate currents of Jewish thought, a theology of liberation for blacks, Latin Americans and Palestinians. Suggested readings are included. 164 pp. AMEU ‡, $6.95.

The TV Arab, by Jack G. Shaheen. Bowling Green, OH: Bowling Green State University Popular Press, 1984. After examining modern stereotypes of Arabs, the author discusses the use of stereotypical images in every genre of television programming, from comedy to documentary. 146 pp. AMEU ‡, $5.50.

We Belong to the Land, by Elias Chacour with Mary E. Jensen. San Francisco, CA: Harper San Francisco, 1990. An autobiographical description about the life and work of a priest in the Melkite Catholic Church who works to achieve peace and reconciliation among Israeli Jews, Christians and Muslims. 212 pp. AMEU ‡, $11.25.

Children's Books

The Day of Ahmed's Secret by Florence Parry Heide and Judith Heide Gilliland, illustrated by Ted Lewin. New York: Lothrop, Lee & Shepard Books, 1990. Young Ahmed rides his donkey cart through bustling Cairo. Pictures of the young boy as he moves through the streets finally lead to Ahmed's revelation that he has learned to write his name. 32 pp. AWAIR ✻, $13.95.

The Flag Balloon by Frances Copeland Stickles, illustrated by Janet Townsley. Washington, DC: American Educational Trust, 1988. In a desire to celebrate Flag Day, a young Palestinian girl devises a way to fly a balloon decorated with a flag decal. 38 pp. American Educational Trust, P.O. Box 53062, Washington, DC 20009. $9.95.

Fortune written and illustrated by Diane Stanley. New York: Morrow Junior Books, 1990. This is a story of a poor young man who follows the wise advice of his bride-to-be and goes to the city to seek his fortune, finding it in an unexpected way. Beautiful color illustrations replicate Persian miniature paintings on parchment. 32 pp. AWAIR ✻, $12.95.

Nadia the Willful by Sue Alexander, illustrated by Lloyd Bloom. New York & Toronto: Random House, 1983. A young girl teaches her father and her bedouin tribe lessons about love and loss in this story of a girl's determination in the death of a favorite brother. 48 pp. AWAIR ✻, $13.95.

The Wonderful Story of Zaal: A Persian Legend retold by M. and N. Batmanglij, paintings by Franta. Washington, DC: Mage Publishers, Inc., 1985. An ancient story from the Persian oral tradition is written in English text and Arabic script to tell the story of the baby Zaal, banished by his father but rescued from death by a magical bird who raises the child in a castle on the magic mountain. The story reveals lessons about power and the path to real wisdom and love. 44 pp. AWAIR ✻, $18.50.

Arab Folktales translated and edited by Inea Bushnaq. New York: Pantheon Books, 1986. Over one hundred oral Arab folktales translated and written for the enjoyment of young and old. 386 pp. AMEU ↕, $10.95.

The Arabs: Activities for the Elementary School Level by Audrey Shabbas, Carol El-Shaieb and Ahlam Nabulsi. Berkeley, CA: AWAIR, 1991. A spiralbound compendium of hands-on projects to develop new skills and understandings. The purpose of the projects is to put a human face on the peoples of the Arab world and to enable children to value themselves and others. 60 pp. AWAIR ✻, $16.00.

Arab World Almanac. A Periodical Educational Resource from AMIDEAST. A curriculum resource with information about the Arab world with photos, transparencies or reproducible materials for instructional use. AMIDEAST, 1100 17th St., NW, Washington, DC 20036; (202) 785-0022. 3 issues/year, $20.00.

The Arab World Notebook: For the Secondary School Level edited by Audrey Shabbas and Ayad Al-Qazzaz. Najda: Berkeley, CA, 1990. Part I is organized into 20 subject areas, each presented in four parts: an Essay, a Reading, Lesson(s) and Resources. For each of 21 countries, there are reproducible materials that include a fact sheet, maps indicating major cities and annotated lists of film and video resources. Textbook analyses for teachers and certain student assignments employ the use of critical thinking skills. 460 pp. AWAIR ✻, $39.95.

Flight to Hope: A Catholic Refugee Awareness Educational Project prepared by the Catholic Consortium on Refugee Awareness Education, 1990. Looseleaf pages including material for eight lesson plans, designed for teachers of grades 6 through 12. Factual material with experiential learning material for young people and parish groups diversifies into projects, activities and liturgical celebrations. 116 pp. Flight to Hope, c/o International Catholic Child Bureau, 323 East 47th St., New York, NY 10017; (212) 355-3992. $10.00.

Focus on Iraq by Moorhead Kennedy and Martha M. Keys. New York: The American Forum for Global Education, 1990. A resource looseleaf binder that includes chronology, fact sheets, UN resolutions, newspaper articles, a bibliography and discussions of basic issues from differing points of view. 300 pp. American Forum for Global Education, 45 John St., New York, NY 10038; (212) 732-8606. $39.95 plus $5.00 postage.

Hostage Crisis by Moorhead Kennedy and Martha M. Keys. New York: The American Forum for Global Education, 1988. A simulation kit for 18-43 participants where Middle Eastern terrorists hijack an airliner, threaten to kill American hostages and the U.S. President rejects their demands. The kit includes simulation materials, Focus on Iraq, 2 additional books and a 15 minute video. American Forum for Global Education. (See address above.) $150.00.

Lands, Peoples and Communities of the Middle East by Juanita Will Soghikian, illustrations by Penny Williams Yaqub, 1991. A basic introduction to the Middle Eastern cultural region of today. It is a cultural geography book intended for use in intermediate grades (children 8-11). Another work-study text consists of enrichment activities serving as duplicating masters for the text. 74 pp. Juanita Swedenborg, 16105 E. Carmel Drive, Fountain Hills, AZ 85268; (602) 837-7006. $12 each; 25 plus, $7.95.

‡ Americans for Middle East Understanding

✻ Arab World and Islamic Resources

§ Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith

Organizations

American Educational Trust
P.O. Box 53062
Washington, DC 20009 or

1900 18th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20009

American Friends Service Committee
1501 Cherry Street
Philadelphia, PA 19102-1479
(215) 241-7000

American Jewish Committee
165 East 56 Street
New York, NY 10022-2746
(212) 751-4000

American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee
4201 Connecticut Ave., NW, Suite 500
Washington, DC 20008
(202) 244-2990

Americans for Middle East Understanding, Inc. (AMEU ‡)
475 Riverside Drive, Room 241
New York, NY 10115
(212) 870-2053

Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (ADL §)
823 United Nations Plaza
New York, NY 10017
(212) 490-2525

Arab World and Islamic Resources and School Service (AWAIR ✻)
1400 Shattuck Avenue, Suite 9
Berkeley, CA 94709
(415) 704-0517

Catholic Near East Welfare Association
1011 First Ave.
New York, NY 10022-4195
(212) 826-1480

Catholic Relief Services
209 W. Fayette St.
Baltimore, MD 21201
(301) 625-2220

God With Us Publications
225 Olivia Street - P.O. Box 505
McKees Rocks, PA 15136

Hartford Seminary (Duncan Black MacDonald Center for the Study of Islam & Christian-Muslim Relations)
77 Sherman Street
Hartford, CT 06105
(203) 232-4451

Middle East Studies Association
University of Arizona
1232 N. Cherry Ave.
Tucson, AZ 85721
(602) 621-7752

Najda: Women Concerned About the Middle East
P.O. Box 7152
Berkeley, CA 94707
(415) 549-3512

St. Vladimir's Seminary Press and Bookstore
575 Scarsdale Road
Crestwood, NY 10707-1699
(914) 961-5456

Resource Materials on the Middle East, is available for $5.00 from Educational Services
Catholic Near East Welfare Association
1011 First Ave. New York, NY 10022-4195
212/826-1480 ext. 3152.

Catholic Near East Welfare Association
a papal agency for humanitarian and pastoral support
1011 First Avenue, New York, New York 10022-4195 212/826-1480

BEST COPY AVAILABLE